

Hard activities of my life

This short story is about tough activities in my opinion. Activities we have to pass through, but they are hard and challenging. Although it seems easy to say that studying is nice and sometimes funny I can say studying is pretty much hard work. Actually, throughout school life we are tested all time long and then we learn to fail and to succeed. Studying is a hard activity to me. Another hard task is to talk in public. Through our lives we always have to talk in public is this is definitely a challenge mainly for shy people. A third activity that I consider tough and decisive in life is exercising! Exercise your body every day is a hard work. It is necessary, but it is really tiring. In my case, I have to do all these three activities daily. I also have to work! I study, I work and I exercise myself. I face these three duties every day. They are challenging, but they help us to keep a good life quality though. So it is important to keep doing them. They are three hard goals that we have to face, because they are fundamental

Welcome Let's practice and talk about

A mother with deep emotions

I am Darlene and I have a boy who is 25 and a girl who is 29. They are leaving home now. Both of them! It is a very sad situation. As a matter of fact I am quite sensitive with all this.

They boy is working for a railway company. He has this new fancy and well paid job. He is totally happy and excited. He is also dating a new girl who seems to be a great person and she also has a nice job. They are buying a house and moving out. |

The girl is also moving out from my nest. My God that is so sad. She is a precious person. She is always kind, responsible and thrilled. I believe she is one of a kind. Now she is getting married with a seller, Josh. He is awesome. He is funny and he's good looking. They are happy, so I know I should also be, however I am not. LOL. I am, in fact, desperate.

I am already feeling lonely at this huge house of ours. I am feeling that this situation will be a great challenge for me. My empty nest makes me cry. My husband though is very supportive. He talks to me a lot about the freedom we are going to have now, because we can travel and enjoy free time. I understand him, but it is sad anyway. I have to get used to it.

The best propaganda I saw

We were at the shopping mall and we were having some ice cream. We were about to buy a new phone to my girlfriend because her own was broken for days and without a phone she felt without an arm. So suddenly she realized a huge advertisement above our heads. It was a blind person wearing a phone with headphones. The phone told her everything that was around her and was guiding her through the streets. I thought that was a brilliant invention and that was also the best advertising I saw in my life so we just bought it without thinking about the price.
